

COLORADO & CALIFORNIA ROCK EQUIPMENT CHECKLIST

This list was designed for the “worst case scenario,” a trip with significant inclement weather. In serious conditions it’s not uncommon for a climber to need every piece of clothing and equipment on this list. However, if a program does not encounter significant weather, there may be items here that are not used. As you prepare for your trip, it’s important to plan for the worst and hope for the best.

At the start of the day, your guide will ensure that everyone is adequately prepared for the day. They will also be able to refine your day pack to make sure that you bring exactly what’s needed given the forecast. It is acceptable to bring too much clothing or equipment to your initial meeting. And it is acceptable to bring things that you have questions about. Extra equipment can always be left behind in the van.

Boulder, CO: Temperatures and weather conditions in the Boulder area are often conducive to great climbing conditions. Thunderstorms, however, are somewhat common and intense rainstorms often last a few hours in the afternoons. Daytime highs can range anywhere from 50°F to 80°F.

Mammoth Lakes, CA: The weather in Mammoth Lakes is typically best for rock climbing courses during Summer - Fall. During the summer, daytime temperatures often hit 70°F and evening temperatures range from 40-50°F. The fall has cooler days and shorter daylight hours with daytime temperatures around 50-60°F with cooler nights.

Rentals: Equipment that is available for rent through the AAI is designated with a “Rent” check box. These items must be requested for rent and paid for prior to your trip start, this can be done either via email (sw-coordinator@alpineinstitute.com) or phone (360-671-1505).

Call or Email the Equipment Shop for Advice on Gear: Please feel free to contact the shop to help you get ready for your trip. Your comfort and safety depend on being well equipped. Whether you get your gear from us or just get advice, we’re here to help you prepare.

Call: (360) 671-1570 - Email: shop@alpineinstitute.com - Website: <https://shop.alpineinstitute.com/>

Please be sure to check the forecast several days prior to your course to ensure that you are properly prepared.

Buff/Neck Gaiter (Optional)

Look for one that is UPF-rated. Lighter colors are better for warm conditions and darker for colder conditions.

Active Insulation Layer

Lightweight “gridded fleece” or lightweight synthetic insulated jacket. Hood preferred. Active insulation weight - 40g/m<sup>2</sup>. Heavier insulation weight - 60-80g/m<sup>2</sup>
Examples: Patagonia R1, Patagonia Nano Air, Arc’Teryx Proton LT

Soft Shell Jacket or Windproof Jacket

A soft shell jacket is considered an “action layer.” Its materials are designed to stretch and breathe while also maintaining wind and water resistance. This allows the user to leave this jacket on for a wide range of temps and conditions throughout the day without the hassle of constantly changing layers.
Windproof jackets are lightweight and packable, but lack the breathability and stretchy nature of the soft shell. Windproof jackets are ideal for blocking wind and light precipitation during low output activities.
Example Softshells: Black Diamond Alpine Start Hoody, Rab Borealis, Mountain Equipment Squall, Patagonia Houdini Air
Example Windproof: Patagonia Houdini, Arc’Teryx Squamish Hoody

Insulation Jacket

AKA the “puffy”. Down or synthetic. This piece is worn in cold conditions or when not moving. Hood preferred. If choosing down, water-resistant down treatment is preferred to help prevent matting and loss of insulating ability if the jacket gets wet.
Examples: Arc’Teryx Nuclei FL, Patagonia DAS Light, Patagonia Down Sweater, Arc’Teryx Cerium, Rab Alpine Series

Utensils

Don't forget the official "most forgotten item" - The spoon or spork. Long-handled spoons make stirring hot liquids safer and metal ones tend not to break as easily in cold temps.

Bowl

Bring one.

Lighters

Bring two.

Hydration

3L capacity is recommended, though some people need more.

A common approach is to bring a 2-3 liter bladder and a 1 liter hard sided bottle. The bottle is an important backup to the bladder if it gets punctured. A hard-sided bottle may also double as a mug for hot water, though not every bottle is designed to hold boiling water.

Examples: Nalgene 32 oz bottle, Hydrapak Seeker 2-3L, MSR Dromedary 4-8L

Food

You are responsible to bring your own food for the duration of the course. Please consult our meal planning page.

OTHER ESSENTIALS

Toothbrush and Toothpaste

Travel size recommended

Buy
 Own

Hand Sanitizer and/or Wet Wipes

Required. Used after going to the bathroom and before eating. Wet wipes can be used for the "mountain shower."

Buy
 Own

Toilet Paper

The provided solid waste bags have a small amount of toilet paper with them, but most people do not find this to be adequate. Estimate how much you'll need for a program of this length and place that in a plastic zip-lock bag. An extra zip lock bag can be helpful for pack-out of used paper. If you plan to use wet wipes, be wary of scented or exfoliating types as these can be an irritant for some people.

Buy
 Own

Pee Cloth (Optional)

A reusable, antimicrobial pee cloth, used in the place of toilet paper or wet wipes.

Example: Kula Cloth

Buy
 Own

Urination Device (Optional)

Pee funnels such as the GoGirl or Freshette. Rigid pee funnels hold their shape better. Used in conjunction with a pee bottle or while on a rope team. These can help mitigate the need to squat. Example: Freshette

There are many things to consider about backcountry menstruation, click on the link for more information.

Examples: Diva cup, Saalt, Lunette
